

DR. MARK BULLIMORE

Assistant Superintendent of Operations

Dr. Mark Bullimore has been named the new Assistant Superintendent of Operations for Excelsior Springs School District. He is currently the Director of Communications for the district.

Dr. Bullimore has been with the district for the last 18 years. Throughout that time, he has served as an elementary and high school teacher, coach, high school assistant principal, middle school principal, career center director, and director of communications.

In his new position, Bullimore's responsibilities will include business operations, transportation, food service, and safety/security. He will also continue his role with district communications.

"Excelsior Springs is home, and I am thrilled to continue to support the success of our students, staff, and community in this new role. My goal is to ensure that the district's operations and business services provide the support our students and staff need for a successful learning environment. I will continue to share our district's story with the community, and build the relationships needed with our students, parents, and businesses," Bullimore said. "It's a blessing I get to work here, live here, and contribute to the growth and progress of our amazing school community; Go Tigers!"
