

DR. JILL COMSTOCK
Principal, Lewis Elementary

Dr. Jill Comstock has been named the next Principal of Lewis Elementary for Excelsior Springs School District. She is currently the Assistant Principal at Lewis Elementary.

Dr. Comstock has been in education for 22 years. Throughout that time she has served as a kindergarten teacher in the Norborne school district for 7 years and had a variety of roles in the Orrick R-XI school district including classroom teacher, Title I Reading Specialist, literacy coach, and Director of Academic Services. Dr. Comstock has been the Assistant Principal at Lewis Elementary for the past four years.

In her new position, Dr. Comstock plans to work alongside Lewis staff to continue to build a culture of collaboration focused on the academic success of all students. She is excited for the opportunity to continue to build a supportive environment that not only celebrates the growth of students and staff but also works hard to involve the families of Lewis and the community of Excelsior Springs in the education of all students.

“I am extremely proud of the Lewis Elementary staff and their commitment to students. I look forward to our next steps and our continued focus on cultivating kindness and academic success,” Comstock said. “We believe that all students can learn and are committed to providing meaningful and engaging learning experiences that lead to student growth.”
